

Volunteers

- Volunteer in the classroom, helping students with writing or Language Arts centers. You would work directly with students helping them with basic sentence structure, paragraphing, and spelling. During center time, you would help students complete a variety of activities to support the Reading curriculum. Let me know if you are available and interested in helping weekly or biweekly.

Supplies

- prizes for the "Box o' Prizes" – Prizes are won by students for such things as correctly guessing the Mystery Composer of the Month and other occasional academic competitions. Items also may be purchased at the end of each month with the "3W dollars" that students earn. Discuss ideas for good, inexpensive treats with your child.
- red construction paper
- colored copy paper -- brights and pastels
- 3" x 3" post-it notes, any color
- washable tempera paint – This type of paint is available at craft stores such as Michael's and A.C.Moore. It's also usually available at discount retailers. It is sold in 8oz and 16oz bottles. Colors: red, orange, yellow, green, blue, purple, brown, black, and white
- kickball
- jump ropes
- Band-aids
- Individually wrapped disinfectant wipes for cleansing wounds
